

PUBLIC ART RUTH ASAWA

- 1 Aurora, Stainless Steel Fountain, 1986
Bayside Plaza
188 Embarcadero at Howard Street
- 2 San Francisco, Cast Bronze Fountain, 1973
Grand Hyatt Hotel at Union Square
345 Stockton Street between Post and Sutter Streets
- 3 San Francisco, Yesterday and Today, Glass Fiber Reinforced Concrete Bas-Relief, 1984
Parc 55 Wyndham, Carriage Entrance
55 Cyril Magnin Street between Eddy and Ellis Streets
- 4 Andrea, Cast Bronze Fountain, 1968
Ghirardelli Square
900 North Point Street at Larkin Street
- 5 Buchanan Mall Fountain, Cast Bronze Origami Fountains and Concrete Bas-Relief Benches, 1976
Nihonmachi Mall
Buchanan Street between Post and Sutter

- 6 Growth, Glass Mosaic Mural, 1969
Bethany Center Senior Housing
580 Capp Street between 20th and 21st Streets
- 7 Permanent Collection, 15 wire sculptures
Hamon Educational Tower Lobby, M.H. deYoung Memorial Museum
50 Hagiwara Tea Garden Drive
Golden Gate Park
- 8 Honoring Makoto Hagiwara, Cast Bronze Plaque, 1974
Japanese Tea Garden, left of the entrance
7 Hagiwara Tea Garden Drive
Golden Gate Park
- 9 Garden of Remembrance, Public Garden, 2002
San Francisco State University
Courtyard between Burke Hall and the Creative Arts Building

IN THE GREATER BAY AREA

Oakland, California
Largest Tied Wire Sculpture, c. 1970s
Exterior Wall at Entrance
Oakland Museum of California
1000 Oak Street between 10th and 12th Streets

San Jose, California
Japanese American Internment Memorial, Cast Bronze Relief Sculpture, 1994
Robert Peckham Federal Building, East Plaza
280 South First Street

St. Helena, California
History of Wine, Cast Bronze Fountain, 1988
Beringer Winery
2000 Main Street

In 2010 the public arts high school was named in her honor:
Ruth Asawa San Francisco School of the Arts
555 Portola Drive at O'Shaughnessey